JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE	Senior Lecturer Paramedic Science
DEPARTMENT	School of Health and Social Care
LOCATION	Brayford
JOB NUMBER	CSS349	GRADE	8	DATE	November 2021
REPORTS TO	Deputy Head of School

CONTEXT

The University of Lincoln has established a reputation as one of the most dynamic, fastest growing universities in the UK. Situated in the heart of a beautiful and historic city it has built an international reputation for the quality of its teaching and research. The School of Health and Social Care is in the College of Social Science, along with the Schools of Psychology, Sports and Exercise Science, Education, Social and Political Sciences and the Lincoln Law School. We also work alongside the School of Pharmacy and the new Medical School in the College of Science.

The School of Health and Social Care has established an enviable regional, national and international reputation for its teaching, its research and its broad educational opportunities.

We offer a range of undergraduate, post-graduate degrees and post registration MSc programmes. We have an income of over £11m, 120 academic staff and over 1800 students registered on the School's programmes across Nursing, Midwifery, Social Work, Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy, Paramedic Science, Health and Social Care and Research. The School also includes the Community and Health Research Unit, renowned for its publicly engaged and transformational research in primary and preventative health and social care practice.

The School of Health and Social Care is forward thinking and ambitious with plans to further develop education for Allied Health Professionals at pre and post-registration levels. We are committed to inter-professional and collaborative working in teaching and research. The successful candidate will join a team committed to enhancing the health and social well-being of people across Lincolnshire and further afield. The School works with providers across Lincolnshire with the aim of transforming services for the benefit of people accessing the service and their families.

JOB PURPOSE

General Duties

To work with colleagues on curriculum development and the advancement of relevant discipline areas within the University

To plan, design and deliver teaching within programmes in relevant discipline areas

To undertake student tutoring and support

To conduct individual scholarly and / or professional practice based projects that contribute to the profile of the School

To carry out other activities in support of the academic work of the department/school particularly in relation to discipline and teaching scholarship and/or relevant professional practice with relevant organisations.

- Ensure that outcomes of scholarly activity and/or professional practice are appropriately disseminated in peer reviewed outlets
- Supervise and manage projects, if required

Liaison and Networking

- Establish contacts within the wider community; disseminate knowledge through public activities which enhance the reputation of the School or College.
- Participate in academic activities with industry and other external partners.
- Maintain and develop links with relevant professional bodies and academic groups.
- Represent the School or College on appropriate external bodies.
- Take part in relevant internal boards, committees and working groups at College or University level as required.
- Liaise with subject librarians, central timetabling and other services to ensure resources available are appropriately deployed

Team Working

- Act as a responsible team member, leading modules or programmes and co-ordinating the work of others to identify and respond to student needs. Although at this level this would not normally be expected for large or complex programmes, such as those involving split sites, or significant cross teaching
- May be expected to supervise the work of others and/or participate in peer observation of teaching. At this level significant resourcing and staffing issues identified would be expected to be dealt with at a higher level

Student Support

- Act as academic tutor to students as allocated by the Deputy Head of School and act as first line contact for them for advice and support on academic matters, ensuring that students are directed to relevant support services when necessary.
- Supervise research degree students as appropriate.
- Supervise student projects and placements as appropriate.

Citizenship

- Contribute, as required to the wider mission and reputation of the University with active involvement in activities contributing to general university life e.g. open days, student activities, alumni events and delivery of outreach activities e.g. school visits, local community activities
- Where appropriate, active participation in committees/groups contributing to university life e.g. health and safety, customer service, equality diversity and inclusivity, sustainability and working groups
- Engage in appropriate training programmes in the University, actively follow and promote University policies and participation in the staff appraisal scheme
- Where appropriate help contribute towards the future development of the University and support the University's wider social, cultural and economic development of our region, our 'civic' mission with engagement and/or leadership of external partnerships contributing to the civic mission of the University. Participation in external activities such as volunteering, cultural activities, community activities

In addition to the above, undertake such duties as may reasonably be requested and that are commensurate with the nature and grade of the post.
